Berner Killed In Art Car Accident

By Hy Chervinsky

A 27-year-old woman died in an art car accident this year. A woman died in an art car accident, was getting off the Black Rock Playa. The accident occurred around 3:30 a.m. just outside of the gate to the Burning Man. The woman, who was driving the art car, was transported to a hospital where she died from her injuries. The accident involved an art car and a pickup truck. The woman was reportedly driving the art car when it collided with the pickup truck. The cause of the accident is under investigation. The woman was not wearing a seatbelt. The Black Rock Playa is a popular destination for art car drivers. The event is held annually in the desert of Nevada. The woman's death is the third in four years. The first occurred in 2000, the second in 2001, and the third in 2004. The event was organized and directed by the Black Rock City Art Car Foundation. The event is held annually in the desert of Nevada. The event is popular for its art car component. The event is held annually in the desert of Nevada. The event is popular for its art car component. The event is held annually in the desert of Nevada. The event is popular for its art car component.