Webcast Burn

By T. D. Lehmann

As Burning Man 2004 comes to a close, the Playa Chicken takes a look at the webcast from his perspective. From a brief behind-the-scenes look at the webcast setup to a tour of the webcast set-up, a look at the audience and a look at the webcast staff, the Playa Chicken provides a unique perspective on the webcast of Burning Man 2004.

Theme Camp Managers: Tips From the Front

By Kathleen Ellis

The Theme Camp Managers of the Burning Man Project share tips and advice on how to make the most of your Burning Man experience.

Aaxes & Spheres

By Ed Cotter

In this article, Ed Cotter explores the concept of axes and spheres in the context of the Burning Man festival.

Announcements

PULSE OF THE MAN

Project AGNI

Flare is working on a solar-powered morror reflector, a project that will be complete in time for Burning Man 2005. The mirror is designed to project a focused beam of light onto the playa, creating a visually stunning display. The mirror will be mounted on a high platform, allowing it to be seen from great distances. The team is currently working on the final design and plans to begin construction in the next few weeks.

Open Eyes in Iowa

By Ed Ingraham

This year, the Open Eyes project will be taking place in Iowa, allowing visitors to experience the playground of the mind and the reality of art in a new way.

Bomblets

The cluster bombs being used in Kuwait and Iraq are small bomblets that have interacted with similar devices. Each bomblet is capable of eau of 1600 meter space, the kill zone of the 200 bomblets.

Burrowing For Stowaways

By Ed Ingraham

The Man has been using the satellite link to the world since the beginning. Now, he is using it to reach out to the Burning Sky Camp at Dubious and the rest of the playa.

Playa Community Policing

By John Ehrenz

Playa Community Policing is a project that is working to provide security and safety for the Burning Man community. The organization is comprised of volunteers who are dedicated to keeping the playa safe and secure.

Meanwhile, Back at the Ranch

By Fritz Hoddick

As the Playa Chicken travels around the Man to bring you his latest update, he encounters a group of people who are trying to steal his camera. The Playa Chicken is able to outsmart them and retrieve his camera, but the situation could have been avoided if the group had not attempted to steal it in the first place.

Sports: Playa Participation!

By Ron Skinner

The history of sports at Burning Man has been dictated by the playa's unique environment and the participants' creative energy. From mini-golf and inner world golf to snake charmers and the Burning Man Festival, Burning Man has been a playground for all sorts of sports and activities.

In this article, Ron Skinner explores the history of sports at Burning Man and how they have evolved via wind, dust, time, and the occasional stroke of genius.